

Laura Herridge

b. St Catharines, ON

Lives and works in Vancouver, BC

The Coast Salish land of the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh peoples

Selected Solo Exhibitions

2023 Some Time Here, Presidio of San Francisco, CA

2021 Letting go of (holding onto) something, Elbow Gallery, Vancouver, BC

2019 Web, Foundation Show, Emily Carr University, Vancouver, BC

Selected Group Exhibitions

2021 All This Time, Online Exhibition, curated by Julie Mills, Number 3 Gallery

2020 Living Pages, Mixed Gems, curated by Lauren Ray, Red Gate Arts Society, Vancouver, BC

2019 Not For Sale, co-curated with Carlan Savage-Hughes, The Object Corner, Vancouver, BC

Public Engagement

2023-

2024 Slub Club co-organizer and facilitator. Seasonal skill sharing and community building workshops
Funded by Vancouver Neighbourhood Small Grants.

2021 Basket Weaving Workshop with Invasive English Ivy, Renfrew Ravine Moon Festival
Instructing and supporting participants through the learning of twining for basketry, using foraged invasive Ivy that was harvested from the local ecology.

2021 Arts Programming Coordinator, Still Moon Arts
Preparing and facilitating natural arts and ecological restoration programming within the community of Renfrew and Collingwood

2021 Fence weaving and community engagement, Earthand Gleaners Society
Using natural materials to weave living fences in community gardens, as well as instruct and support community members in weaving their own fences with willow, ash and dogwood

Published Work

- 2022 Fibre Stories. Shumka Centre for Creative Entrepreneurship 2021, Artists and Writers. Edited by Ash Logan and Chiara Schmitt. <https://fibrestories.ecuad.ca/publication/>
- 2021 So we're goin' on a bear hunt, huh?, Artist Book
- 2019 These Books Have a Pulse: Reading Human "Books" at Zee Zee Theatre's Human Library. CiTR Discorder. Written by Elliot Billingsley, Illustrations by Laura Lindsey. 2019. <https://www.citr.ca/discorder/february-2019/these-books-have-a-pulse-reading-human-books-at-zee-zee-theatres-human-library/>

Education

- 2024 BFA Visual Arts
Emily Carr University of Art and Design, Vancouver, BC
- 2022 California College of Art, Exchange Program
- 2022 WITT (Women in Trades Training), Okanagan College, Kelowna, BC
- 2021 Fibreshed Field School, Shumka Centre, Vancouver, BC
- 2017 Social Entrepreneurship Program, Groundswell, Vancouver, BC